

Juvenile Justice 2016 Annual Report

PRESENTED BY MARIEL CABALLERO, PROGRAM MANAGER JUVENILE PROBATION & CRAIG CARPENTER
MANAGEMENT ANALYST

CONTRIBUTORS: THE JUVENILE JUSTICE COURT; PROBATION DEPARTMENT: JUVENILE SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS DIVISIONS; DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE; OFFICES OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER AND ALTERNATE
DEFENDER; INDEPENDENT DEFENSE COUNSEL OFFICE, SOCIAL SERVICES AGENCY: DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY AND CHILDREN SERVICES; BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Executive Summary

Arrests

Arrests/citations continued to decline in 2016 to 3,310 arrests and citations (17 percent fewer than 2015).

Admissions to Custody

A total of 1,048 youth (32 percent of all arrested) were admitted at (or referred to) Juvenile Hall and 921 were detained (528 individuals).

Petitions

A total of 1,201 petitions were filed in 2016 (15 percent fewer than 2015).

Placements from Dispositions

The overall number of out of home placements decreased by 40 percent and Ranch Commitments decreased by 48 percent from 2015 to 2016

Violations of Probation

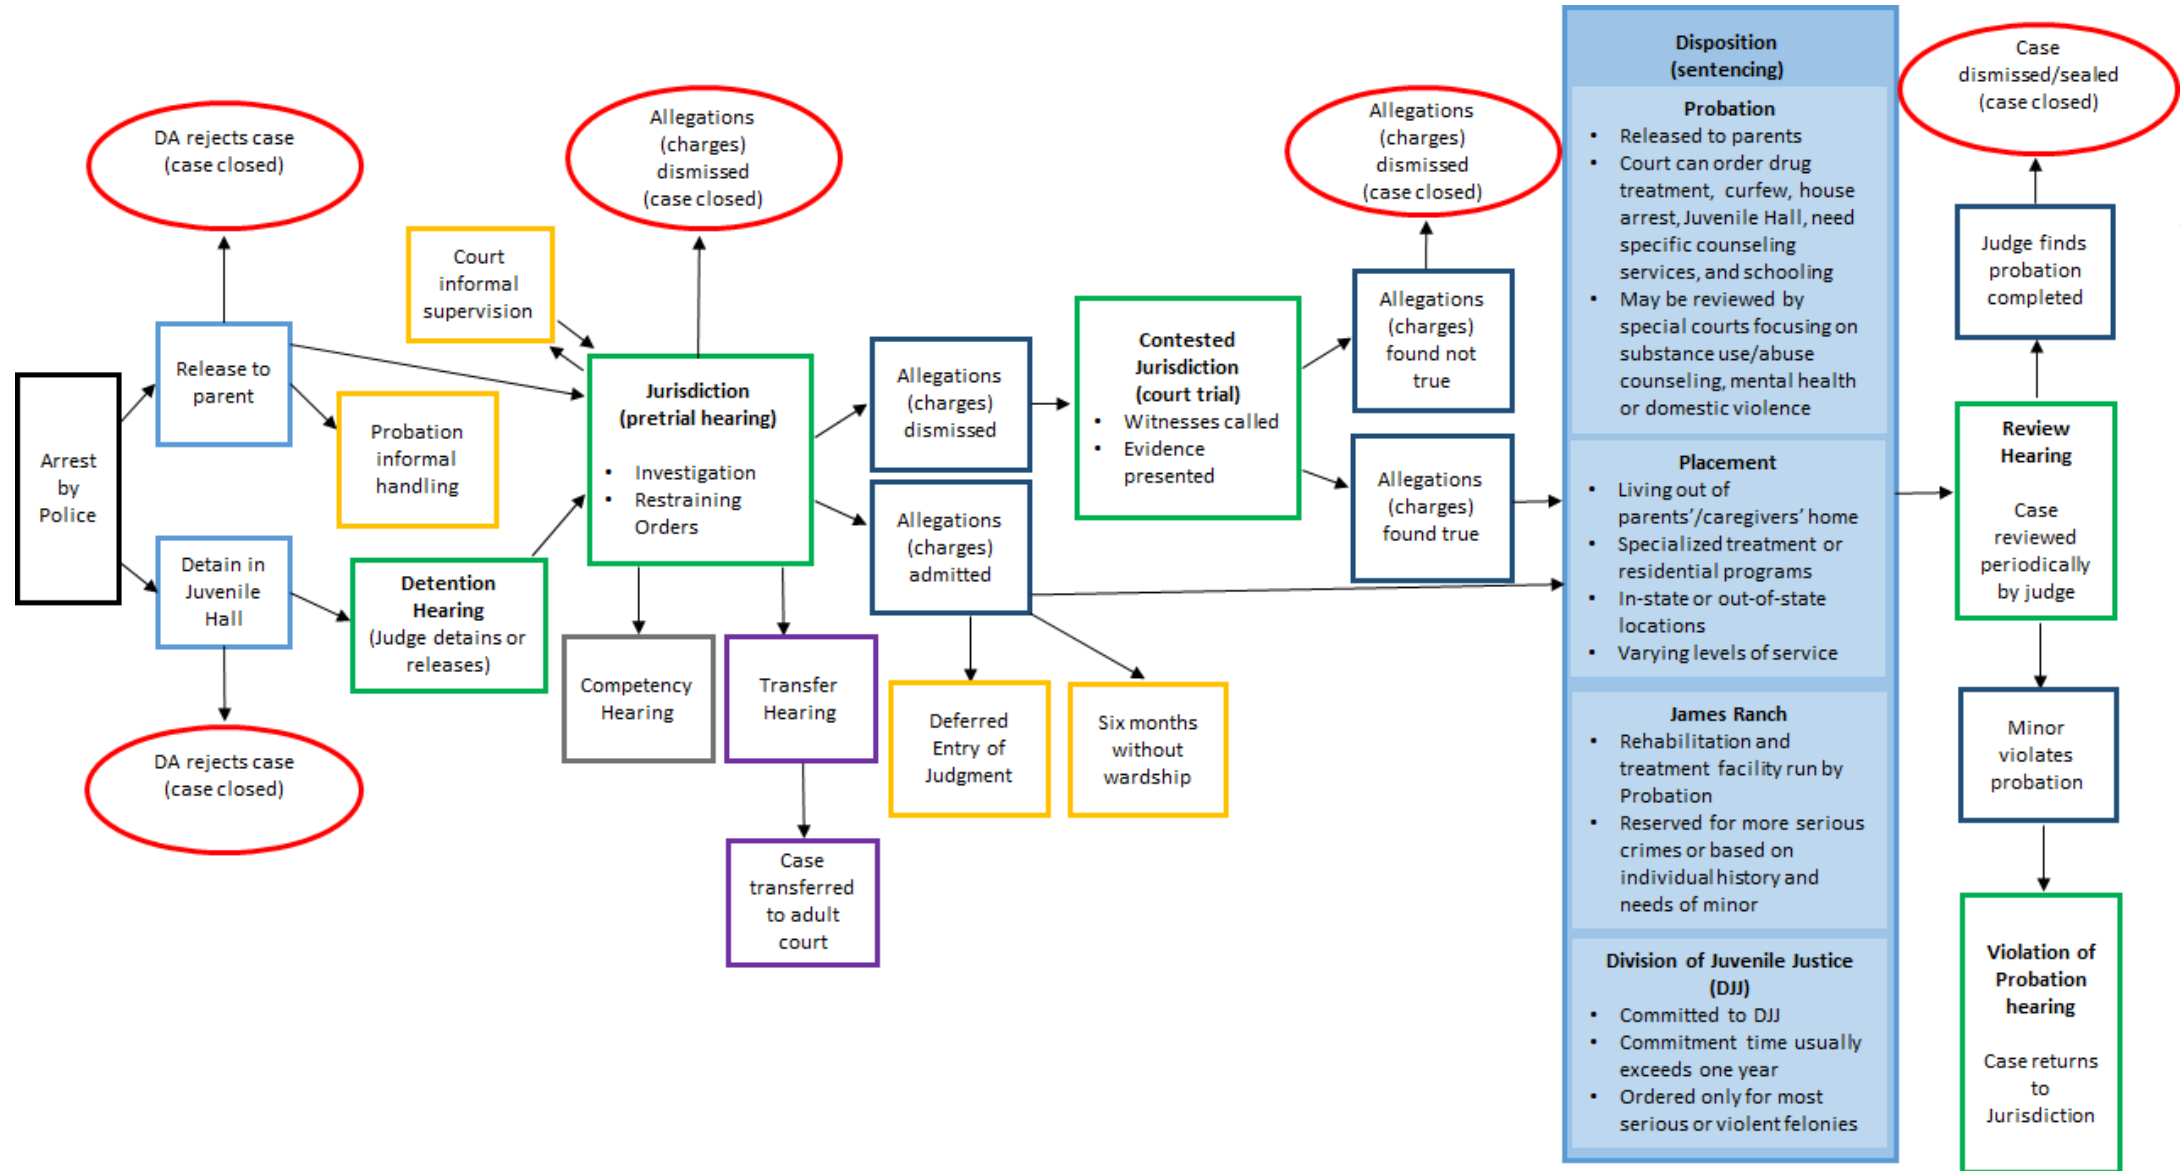

The number of violations of probation fell from 384 in 2015 to 321 in 2016, a 16 percent reduction.

Racial Disproportionality

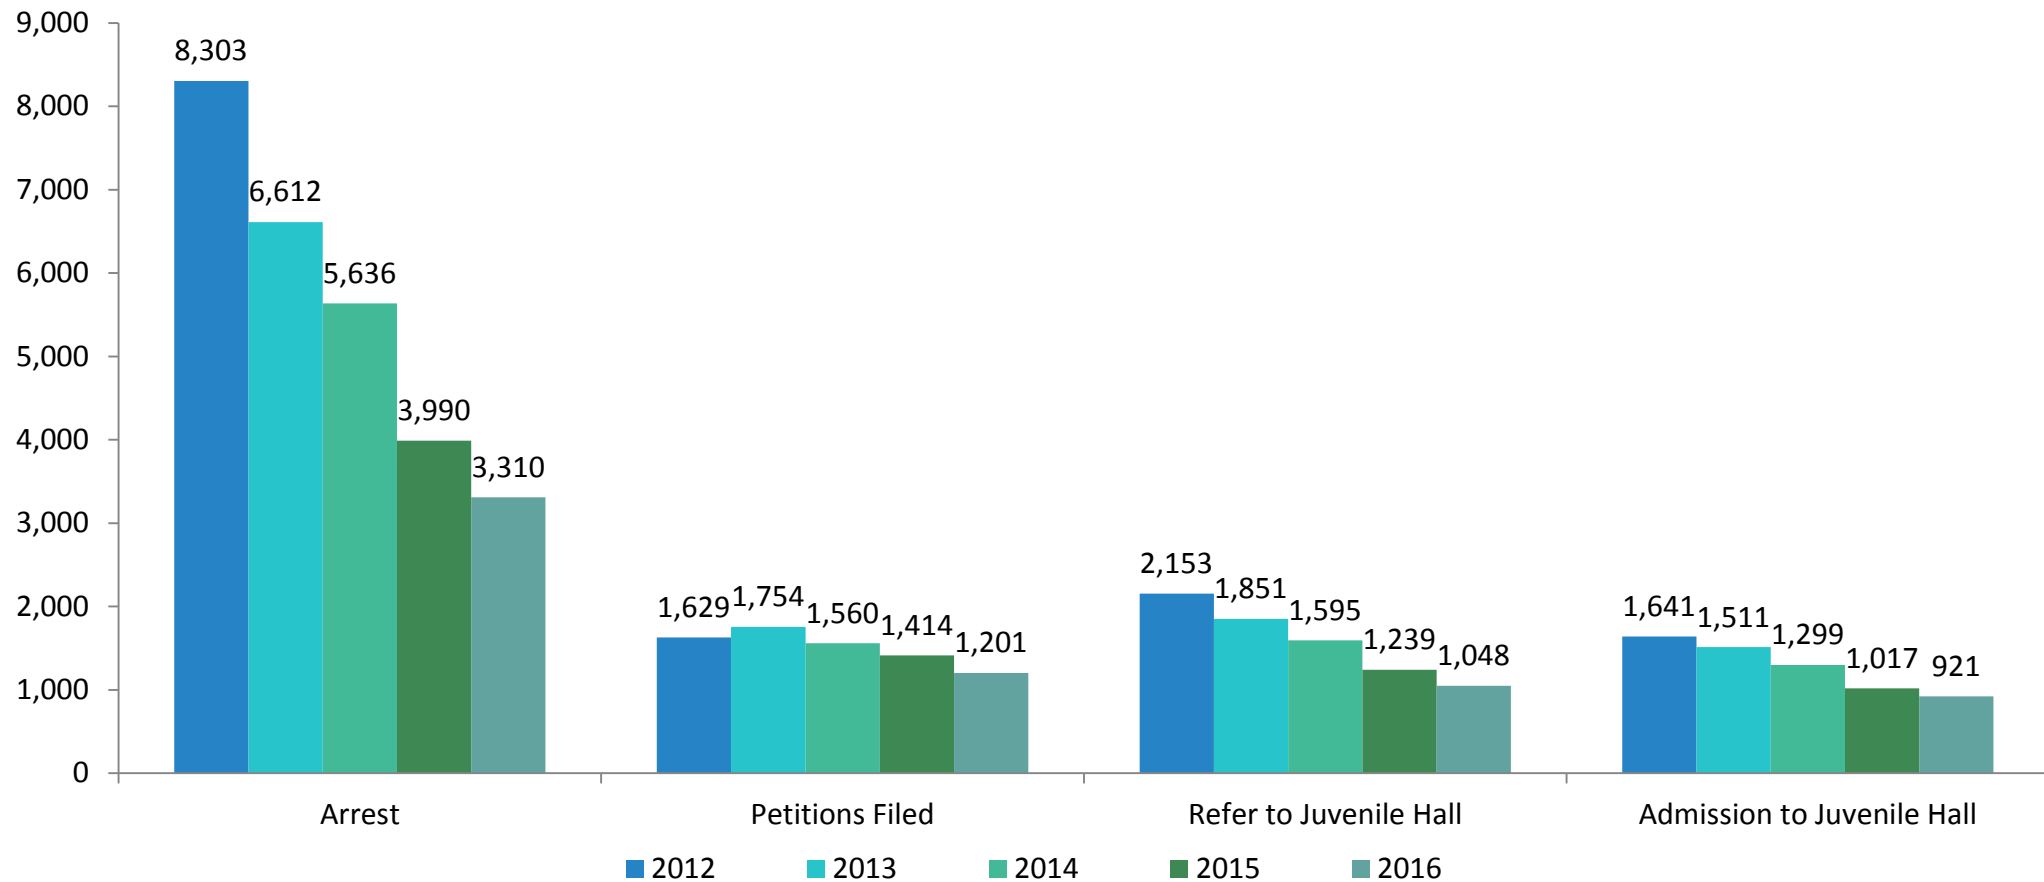

In 2016, Black and Latino youth continue to be overrepresented at every decision point in the system.

Juvenile Justice System Map

2011-2016 Trends of System Involvement

Arrests and Citations

Numbers: 3,310 arrests (38 % diverted)

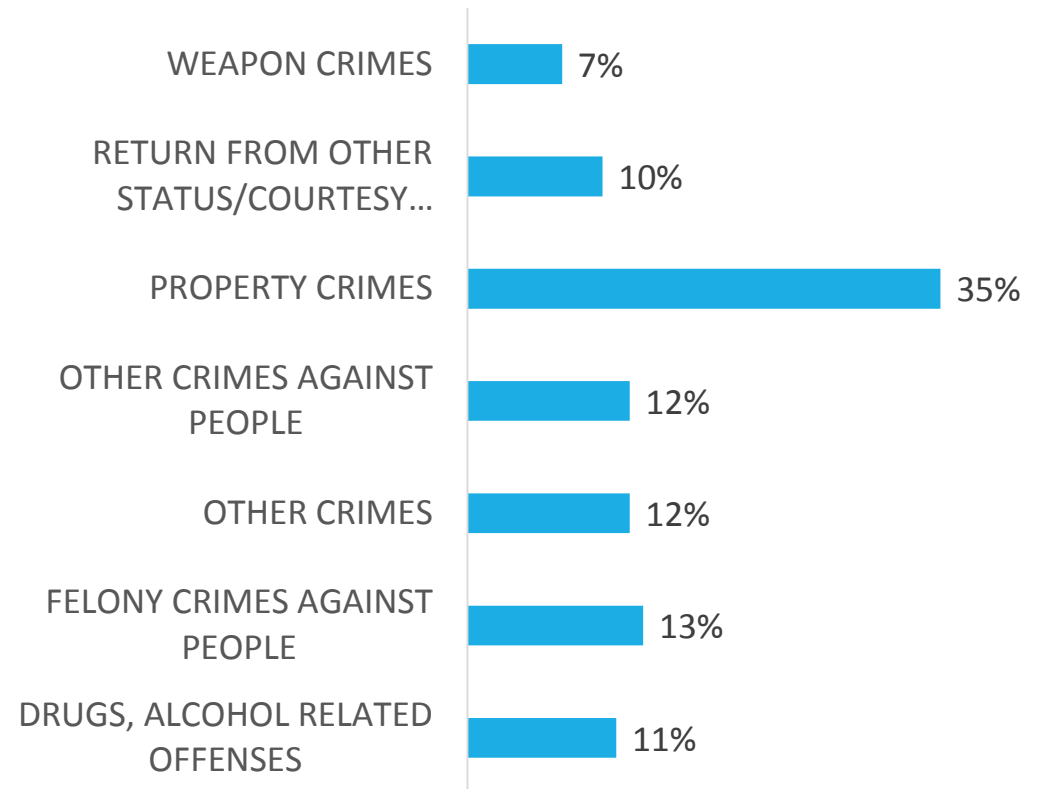

Trends: There were 17% fewer arrests in 2016 compared to 2015

Most Frequent Reasons: Property Crimes (35%) and Felony Crimes against People (13%)

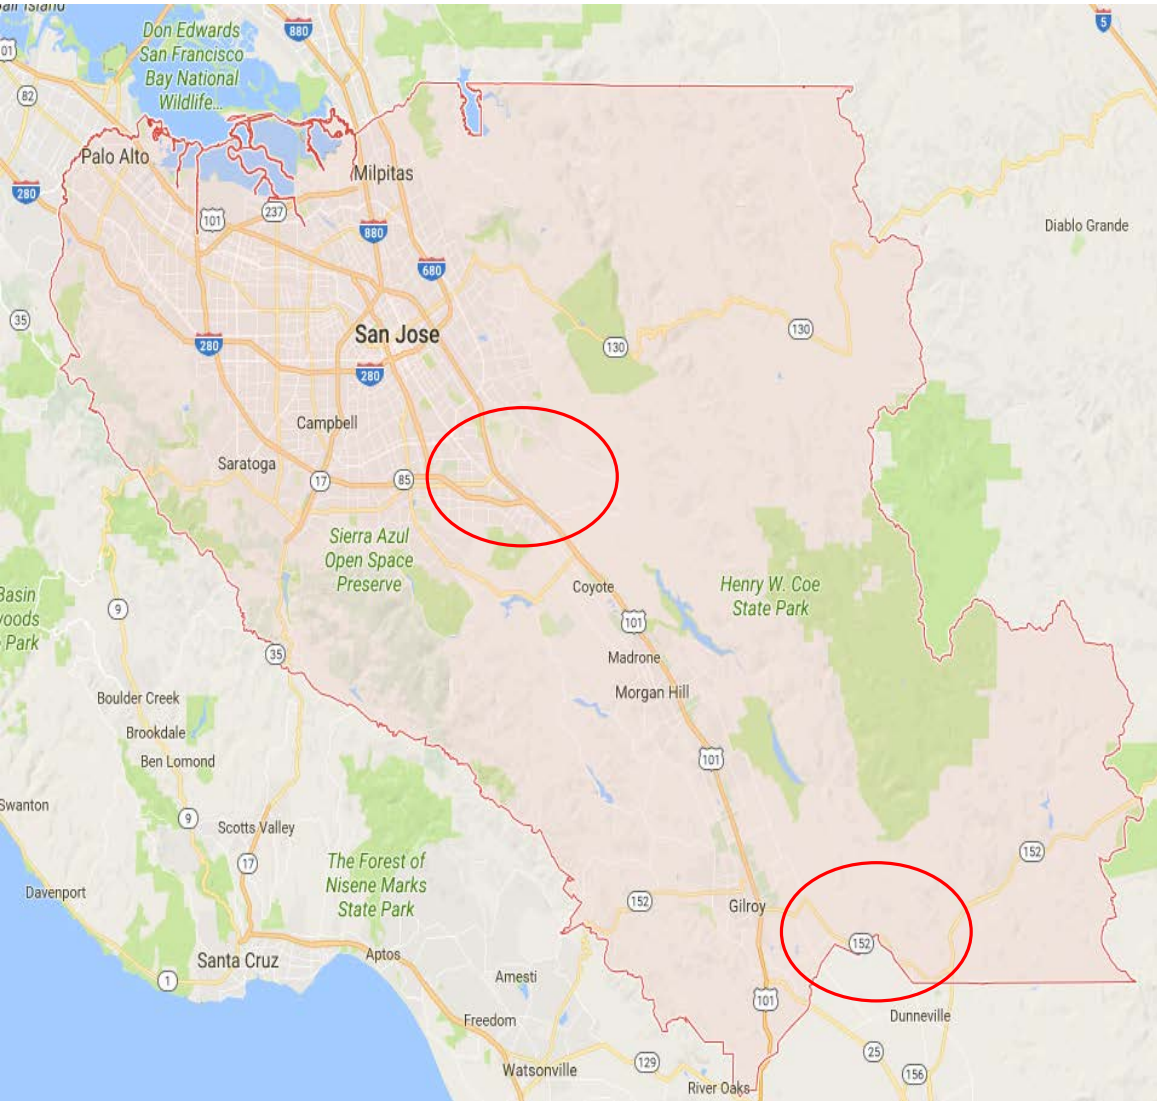

Offense Classification: 51% Misdemeanor, 37% Felony, 10% Status, 2% Infraction

Disparities: Black and Latino youth were 6 and 3 times more likely than White youth to be arrested/cited

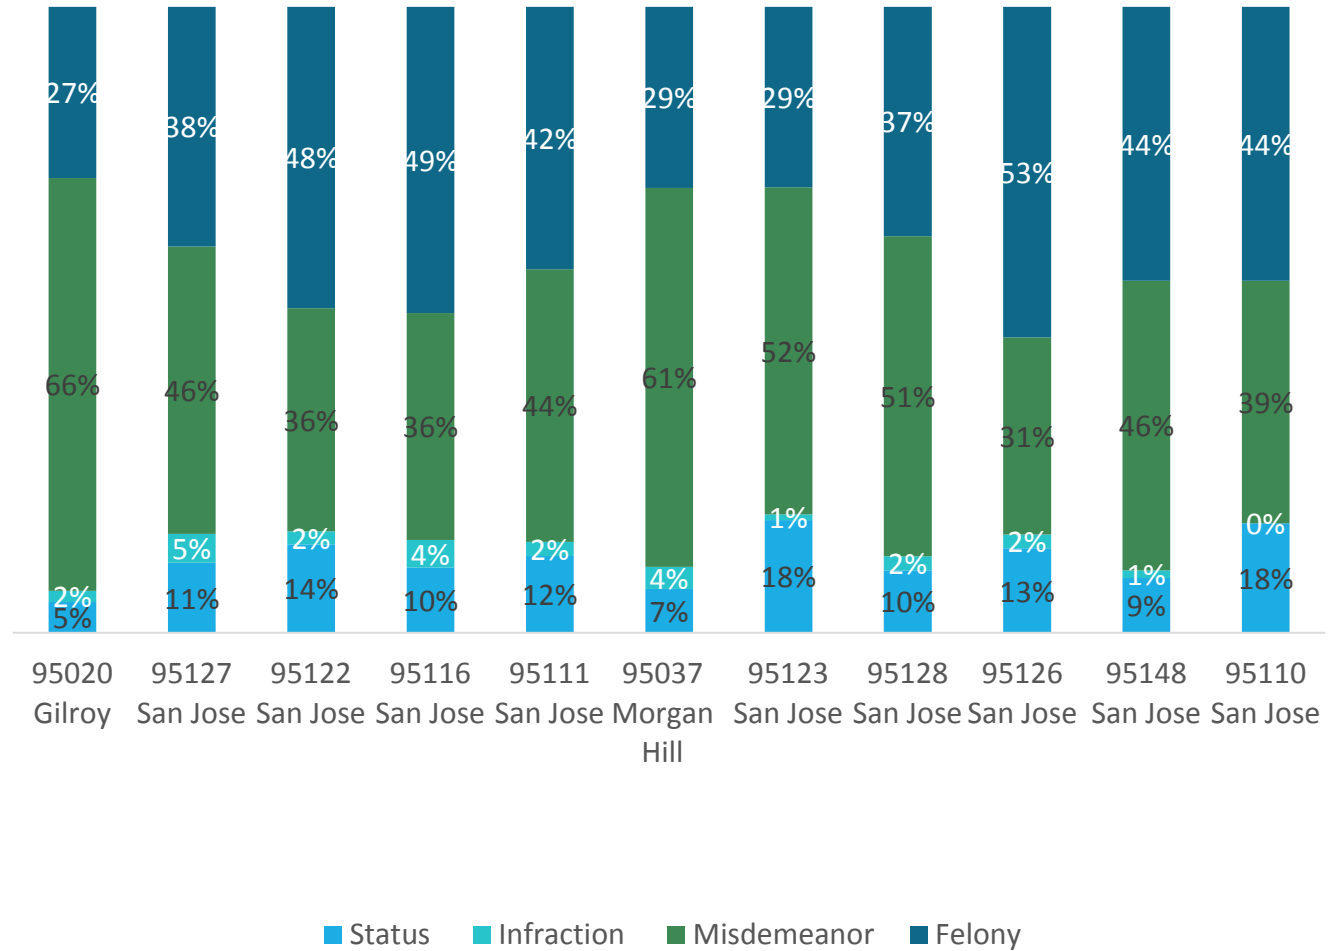

Geography: The majority of arrested youth reside in San Jose, 7% in Gilroy, 10% out of county

Arrests & Citations: Geography

Offense Classification for Top Ten ZIP codes

Intake & Admissions

Admission Numbers: 921, 88% detained at screening

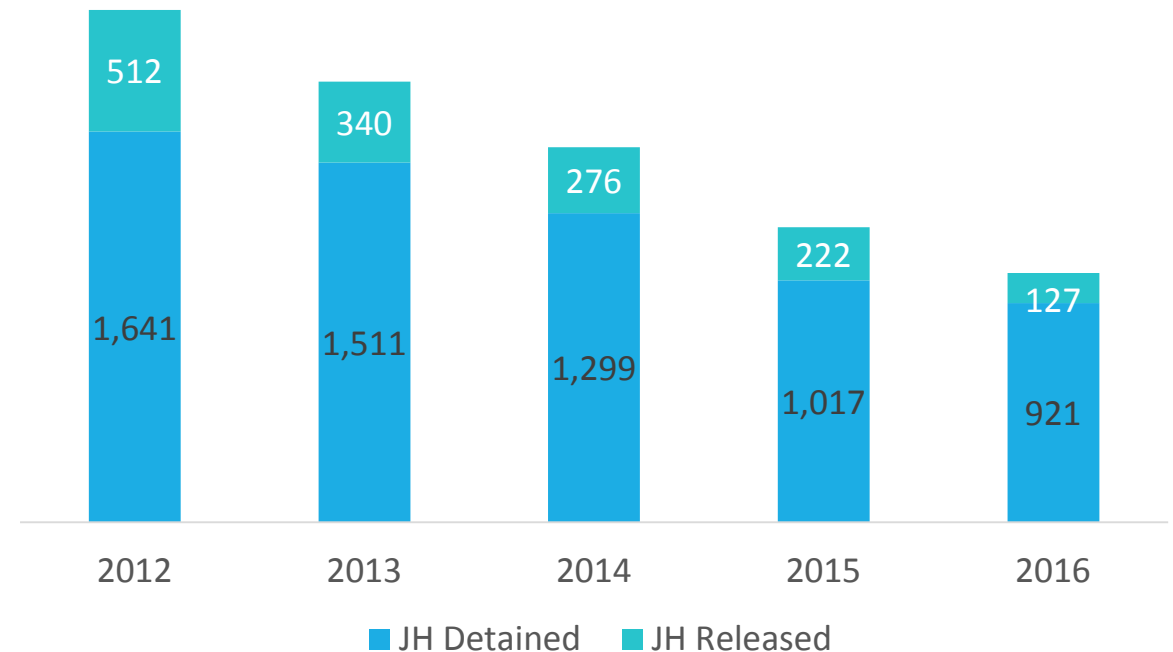

Most Frequent Reasons: Property Crimes (27%); Felony Crimes Against People (26%); Violations of Probation (23%).

Racial and Ethnic Disparities: Black and Latino youth were 10 and 6 times more likely than White youth to be detained.

Geography: 17% of admissions were from the 95116 & 95122 ZIP Codes. 8% of youth detained at Juvenile Hall were from out of county.

Age & Gender: 82% male and 69% were aged 16 years or older. Female youth made up 18 percent of those detained. The ages of youth were similar across both genders.

Juvenile Hall Intake Decision Trend
2012-2016

Petitions

Petition Numbers: 1,201

Trends: 15% fewer petitions in 2015 than 2014.

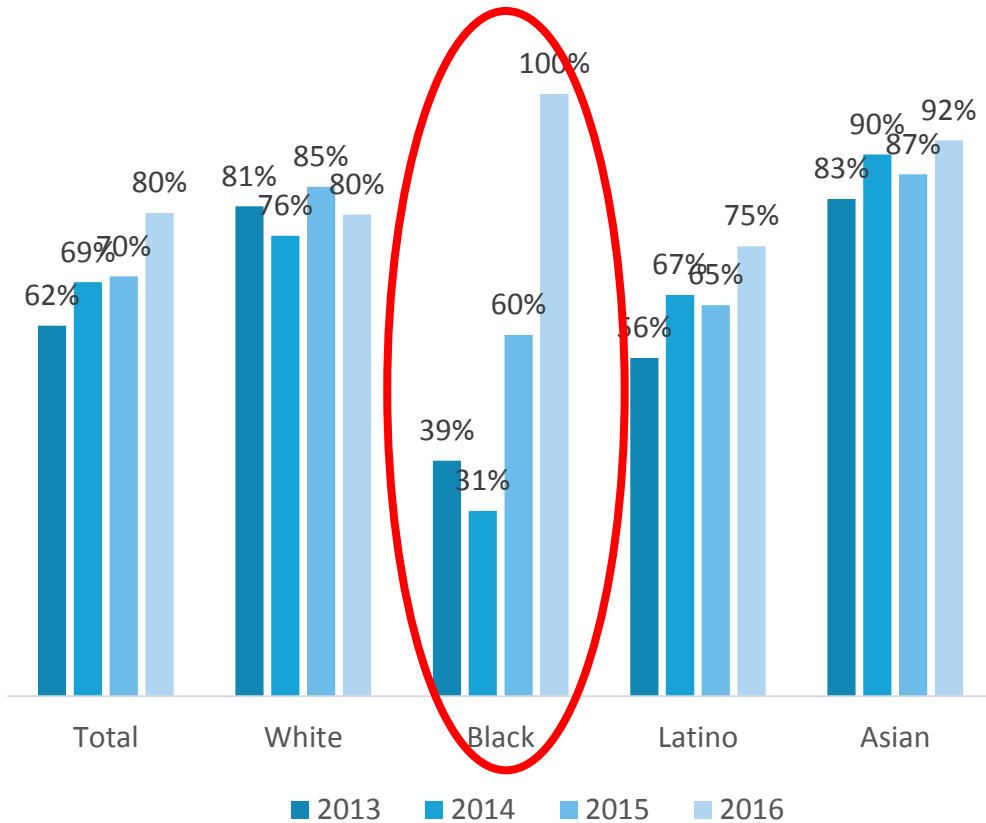

Most Frequent Reasons: Car Theft, Robbery, and Residential Burglary

Disparities: Black and Latino youth were 7 and 6 times more likely to be petitioned than White youth, respectively.

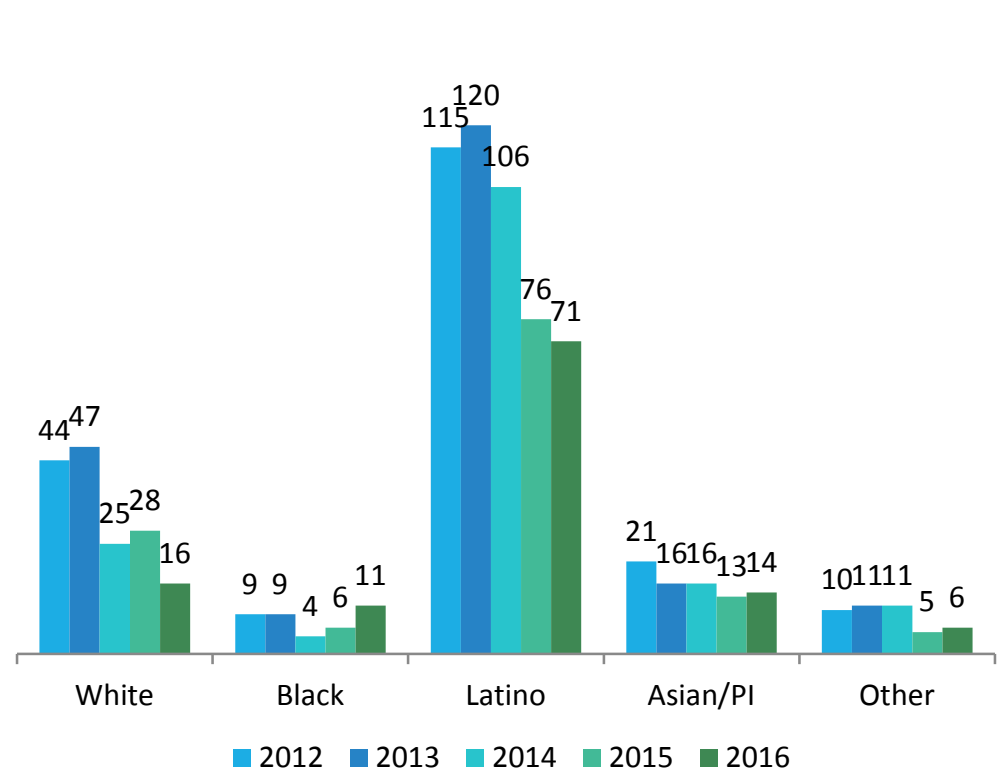

DEJ Success

DEJ Annual Success Rate by Race 2013-2016

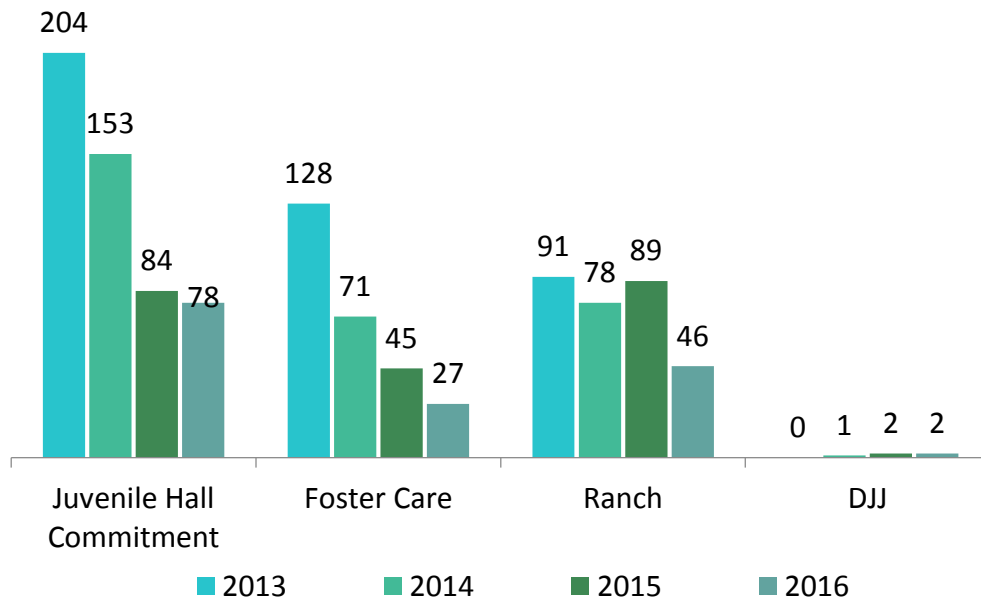

Number of Youth Successfully Completing DEJ 2012-2016 Trends

Dispositional Outcomes

Commitments and Placements
2013-2016 Trends

Number of Youth in Alternatives
2013-2016

